

BIOGRAPHY

Colonel Dennis D. Doyle –
30th Medical Command Commander

Col. Dennis D. Doyle was born in Toledo, Ohio. He graduated cum laude from the University of Toledo in 1979. He received a Master of Science Degree from Eastern Michigan University in 1981, a Master of Healthcare Administration Degree from Baylor University in 1999 and a Master of Strategic Studies from the Army War College in 2003. Col. Doyle was commissioned through the Officer Candidate School, Fort Benning, Georgia in 1982.

His military education includes the Aviation Officer Advanced Course, Command and General Staff College, the U.S. Army – Baylor University Graduate Program in Healthcare Administration and the U.S. Army War College. He has held numerous command and staff positions during the past twenty-seven years culminating in his current assignment as Commander, 30th Medical Command.

His service began as Medical Platoon Leader and Adjutant, 6th Battalion (Mechanized), 31st Infantry, Fort Irwin, California. Following his selection and graduation from Flight School in 1984, he served as Section Leader and Operations Officer in the 4th Platoon, 421st Medical Company (Air Ambulance) in Darmstadt, Germany. He continued to serve as Operations Officer when that unit converted to the 159th Medical Company (Air Ambulance), 421st Medical Evacuation Battalion. Col. Doyle's next assignment was Flight Platoon Leader, Delta Company, 326th Medical Battalion, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Kentucky. He subsequently served as S2/3, 326th Medical Battalion during Operations DESERT SHIELD/STORM. His final assignment at Fort Campbell was as Plans and Operations Officer, 101st Division Support Command. He next served as a Health Services Personnel Management Officer, Total Army Personnel Command, Alexandria, Virginia. Following his attendance at the Command and General Staff College, Col. Doyle was assigned as S2/3, 1st Medical Group, Fort Hood, Texas. He subsequently served there as Commander, 507th Medical Company (Air Ambulance). After graduation from the Baylor program, he served as the Chief, Managed Care Division, Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, Landstuhl, Germany. Col. Doyle next commanded the 421st Medical Evacuation Battalion (DUSTOFF Europe), Wiesbaden, Germany. He then served as Chief of Staff and Deputy Commander for Administration, Womack Army Medical Center, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. In 2004, Col. Doyle assumed command of the 10th Combat Support Hospital, Fort Carson, Colorado where he also served as Commander, 43rd Area Support Group (Rear, Provisional). During Operation Iraqi Freedom 05-07, he commanded Medical Task Force 10, the largest medical task force in Multi-National Corps-Iraq that included Ibn Sina hospital in Baghdad, the largest and busiest trauma center in the CENTCOM theater. Col. Doyle most recently served as the Deputy Commander for Administration, Walter Reed Army Medical Center.